High on Fire

Serve the shadows of mountain peaks
Under the glass mirrored skies
Sing the psalms of the wailing winds
The entrance seer will provideStars reveal the tattered map
A land cursed in time
So speaks the words of our challenger
Seeking the ultimate prizeSpeaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakenedSpeaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakenedFear is invoked by your trembling hands
The foe is deadly and wise
A sight that's filled the eyes of mighty men
The very cost of their livesTake the aim of the shimmering blade
The vulnerable spot is precise
Swift is the hand of the waking beast
Crown of two worlds is the prizeSpeaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakenedSpeaking the words of the sorcerer's tongue
No one can stop what's already begun
Follow the footsteps and unlock the door
The giant your face has awakenedBlood will spill on the warrior's feet
Casting the enemy aside
Exalting the hero for evermore
Steps to the throne of the eyesServe the shadows of mountain peaks
Under the glass mirrored skies
Sing the psalms of the wailing winds
The entrance seer will provide
