Counter Clockwise

Gold Motel

Can I kick. Go on out love.
Or will the dust just fill my eyes.
The easiest way to forget.
Is to leave the place behind.
But I stop each time I try.

Moving counter clockwise.
Turning it back through a hole of hello and goodbye.
Walking with my eyes closed turning it black
I wind the clock 'til you finally arrive.

Moving counter clockwise.
'Til you finally arrive.
Moving counter clockwise.

Know you staying up at night.
Running over each mistake.
Can't go back and make it right.
Those are dues already paid.

Moving counter clockwise.
Turning it back through a hole of hello and goodbye.
Walking with my eyes closed turning it black.
I wind the clock 'til you finally arrive.

Moving counter clockwise.
'Til you finally arrive.
Moving counter clockwise.
'Til you finally arrive.
