Moon

Antonio Testa

as the lukewarm hands of the gods came down and gently picked my adrenaline pearls they placed them in their mouths and rinsed all of the fear out nourished them with their saliva now i'm all rejuvinated and rested
now i'm all rejuvinated and rested as if the healthiest past-time is being in life-threatening circumstances and once again be reborn all birthed and happy

best way to start-a-new is to fail miserably fail at loving and fail at giving fail at creating a flow then realign the whole
and kick into the starthole
to risk all is the end all and the beginning all
