LIFELESS

å°•å•‚ã‚Šã‚†

I wanna hold you up to let you see yourself
I'm sick of watchin' you fall on your face again
I wanna help you, you have to help yourself
I know you won't communicate to me
I fucking hate this
Sufferin' long enough
Constrict my hands around you
You'll never breathe again
Your wish has come, no tellin' what you'll see
Will it be the end?
Temptation fills you up, no sign of slowing down
You have to stop before you slowly turn around
You never listen to understand a word I say
You keep on pushing the same old fucking line to me
Watching you crumble
Sufferin' all your life
Constrict my hands around you
You'll never breathe again
Your wish has come, no tellin' what you'll see
Will it be the end?
Constrict my hands around you
You'll never breathe again
Your wish has come, no tellin' what you'll see
Will it be the end?
You never listen to understand a word I say
You keep on pushin' the same old fuckin' line to me
Watching you crumble
Sufferin' all your life
Constrict my hands around you
You'll never breathe again
Your wish has come, no tellin' what you'll see
Will it be the end?
So try and share the story
Of why you think it's gonna wait
I wish that I could tell you
What we'll be if it's not the end
