Tokyo Rose

Tokyo Rose

Lyrics -copyright 1983.
Intro./Chorus.
This is Tokyo Rose interfering with your radio show.
Just to say a few words like :-
Yankee Go Home leave us alone, Yankee Go Home.
Yankee Go Home leave us alone, Yankee Go Home.
Verse1.
She was a lady back in forty five.
She had to tell the Allies they were gonna die.
From the Sands of Hiroshima to the Banks on Bunker Hill
You could always here her name.
Tokyo Rose.
And she would Broadcast all over the world.
This high class society Eastern Girl .
Now it's sometimes said on certain Airways if you listen carefully you can hear her say.
Intro./Chorus.
Verse2.
Now the boys thought of her as a joke.
You know they even used to mimic the way she spoke.
From the Back streets of London to the Highways of LA.
You could always here her name.
Tokyo Rose.
Now the boys went to Hell and Back .
Listening all the time for the odd broadcast.
Now it's sometimes said on certain Airways if you listen
carefully you can hear her say.
Intro./Chorus.
Now the years the years have past by.
Where's Tokyo Rose well she's probably died
She was the first to say Yankee Go Home.
But we Thank God today that those Yankees won.
Outro.
This is Tokyo Rose Calling >>>>>>>>>>>>>>
Words and Music by Derek Buckham./Peter Barclay.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/