Lead Me Upstairs

David Gray

"I care little for my body", she said
"I couldn't care less about my soul
And as she led me upstairs in whispers
My whole summer turned coldI'll lead you upstairs, I'll lead you upstairs
If you've got no worries then I've got no cares
I'll lead you upstairsI told her people had been talking
About how dark she was inside
She said, "My hopes are buried in the soil
Deep in the earth outside"And with one twist of the world
She brought me to her side
She asked me for the truth one time
And all I did was lieI'll lead you upstairs, I'll lead you upstairs
If you've got no worries then I've got no cares
I'll lead you upstairsYou lead me upstairs in whispers
And my whole summer turned cold
My whole summer turned coldI'll lead you upstairs, I'll lead you upstairs
If you've got no worries then I've got no cares
I'll lead you upstairs, I'll lead you upstairs
I'll lead you upstairs, I'll lead you upstairsI'll lead you upstairsUpstairs
