Teenage Angst

Free Drunk

Shine the headlight, straight into my eyes
Like the roadkill, I'm paralyzed
You see through my disguiseAt the drive-in, double feature
Pull the lever, break the fever
And say your last goodbyesSince I was born, I started to decay
Now nothin' ever, ever goes my wayOne fluid gesture, like stepping back in time
Trapped in amber, petrified
And still not satisfiedAirs and social graces, elocution so divine
I'll stick to my needle and my favorite waste of time
Both spineless and sublimeSince I was born I started to decay
Now nothin' ever, ever goes my way
