Master Charge

Lil' Ed & The Blues Imperials

My wife has a charge card
That I got her the other day
I owe five hundred dollars
That's just for yesterdayI said, "Honey, here's a present, go out and shop around Get a couple of dresses and browse around downtown"
She did just what I told her, bought one, two or three
Then came home looking silly, making goo-goo eyes at meMaster Charge

She said, "Yes, one or two
But I had to get me some shoes and I needed
Some jewelry too"She had $200 dresses
That I could have made and I can't sew
Fifty Dollars pair of shoes
And I thought you so and soI said, "What about the jewelry?"
As calmly as I could
She said, "Honey, you'll love them
They're pure African wood"Master Charge
