Dorothy

Syd Arthur

Born to live now
Born to die
Like fading trace
Hover in a blink of an eyeMortal, flesh and blood
Oh, your eyes that see
And your heart that beatsWait for the mood to change
Oh, I hide away. oh, I try to escapeOut of my mind tonight the world has never been clear
Taking me by surprise at every corner now
Letting my heart decide but I'm not listening
Making it hard to find my wayWasted another day
Oh, awake to find that I worried the whole of my life away
Day turns to night again
As it closes in where have you been not leave me aloneOut of my mind tonight the world has never been clear
Taking me by surprise at every corner now
Letting my heart decide but I'm not listening
Making it hard to find my way
