My Curse

Sean Townsend

Yeah I watched you walk away
Hopeless with nothing to say
I screen my eyes
Hoping to see you againThis is my curse
(The longing)
This is my curse
(To)
This is my curse
(The yearning)
This is my curseThere is love burning to find you
Will you wait for me? Will you be there?Your silence haunts me
But still I hunger for youThis is my curse
(The longing)
This is my curse
(To)
This is my curse
(The needing)
This is my curseThere is love burning to find you
Will you wait for me?Still I want and still I ache
But still I wait to see you againDying inside these walls
Dying inside these wallsCan I see your face in these tears?
In these tears and I see your faceThere is love, there is love
There is love, there is love
There is love, there is love
There is love, there is love
