No Way Down

Freakhouse

Somewhere inside this fractured heart
Lies the story of how you came apart
Someone hurt you long ago
Feelings overwhelming, burn me slowThere is no way down from here, there is no way
There is no way to escape what you fear
There is no way down from here, there is no way
There is no way to escape what you fearPast lives tell us where to go
And the reason youll never let it show
Losing what we had before
Offered you my hand as you hit the floorThere is no way down from here, there is no way
There is no way to destroy what you fear
