Cherries

Neon Blonde

Sittin' here thinking 'bout the soul that they call the one love
I just wanna stop the world becauseLife's not a bowl o' cherries
Life's not a bowl o' cherries
Life's not a bowl o' cherries
Life's not a bowl o' loveI've been good to you
I've been bad
I've heard your excuses
And I don't give a damnYou say life's been so unkind
You know that you'll never let it go
You say life's been so unreal
You know that you'll never let it go
That you'll never let it go
That you'll never let it goSittin' here thinking 'bout the soul that they call the one love
I just wanna stop the world becauseLife's not a bowl o' cherries
Life's not a bowl o' cherries
Life's not a bowl o' cherries
Life's not a bowl o' loveI've been good to you
I've been bad
I've heard your excuses
And I don't give a damnYou say life's been so unkind
You know that you'll never let it go
You say life's been so unreal
You know that you'll never let it go
That you'll never let it go
That you'll never let it goI've been good to you
I've been bad
I've heard your excuses
And I don't give a damn, damn, damn, damnYou say life's been so unkind
You know that you'll never let it go
You say life's been so unreal
You know that you'll never let it go
That you'll never let it go
That you'll never let it go
That you'll never let it go
