Hardwire

DJ Velocity

Giving for chances to leave the basement life
And not the landlord's wife
Furnished room, celebrate the first flight window
Bird's eye view
You, hardwire, I'll try to play the guitar
Stay, smoke is gone, pass by the morning
Though we both see it coming we don't run
Let the silence settle in our bones
You are everything
You are nothing at all
You are everything
You are nothing at all
You are every night
You fade to light
You fade to light the room
Daylight writes a new light on you
Giving for chances to take it all in stride
Why'd we walk a broken line of minus signs?
You, hardwire, I'll try to play the guitar
Stay, smoke is gone, pass by the morning
Though we both see it coming we don't run
Let the silence settle in our bones
You are everything
You are nothing at all
You are everything
You are nothing at all
You are every night
You fade to light
You fade to light the room
Daylight writes a new light on you
You leave your eyes there for me to memorize
I can see you happy in the shadows I despise
You, hardwire, I'll try to play the guitar
You, hardwire, I'll try to play the guitar
You, hardwire, I'll try to play the guitar
You, hardwire, I'll try to play the guitar
