Eternity

Dr. Sin

Sitting here looking at the fire
My life passes before my eyes
I feel so tired I could dieAs the night sky falls upon me
I think of everything I love
Lonely tears are coming from my eyesI watch the world around me
The little things remind me
How my life was easy beforeIt's so hard to remember
On ling cold december
Wainting for the sun to shine on meIf I knew what I had before
I would have chosen another door
The path I took
Wasn't what I thought at allLooking back
Oh, I wish I could
Live eternity in my childhood
Lord I wish I could...Holding on to what escaped me
Too many years ago
The voices echo in mu soulSo many lost desires
Too many broken dreams
I'm going back I'll find a way
