last try

Accessoires

I remember you
Baby, it's you who's forgotten
I remember all the things
You said and stood for way back thenI remember you
Popping up in sunny weather
Making for a hand out now
That you know I've got it togetherImportant while I
Do not want to steal your thunder
I'm building a dam at the bridge
So water can't get underTake a good look at me
Running, running for the last time
Burning fast and headed for the finish lineAnd take a good look at me
Winning, winning on the last try
Winning when all bets were taken off my sideI remember who
Who joined the mob mentality
I deserve the sun and moon
And at least an apologyFinally I graduate to fit the bill
May I remind you until [Incomprehensible] are a bitchAnd take a good look at me
Running, running for the last time
Running fast and headed for the finish lineAnd take a good look at me
Winning, winning on the last try
Winning when all bets were taken off my sideTake a good look at me
Running, running for the last time
Running fast and heading for the finish lineTake a good look at me
Winning, winning on the last try
And winning when the bets were taken off my sideAnd take a good look at me
Running, running for the last time
Running fast and heading for the finish lineTake a good look at me
Winning, winning on the last try
