Turn Right

Kosmonaut

Pick up all your tears,
Throw 'em in your back seat,
Leave without a second glance,
Somehow I'm to blame,
For this never-ending racetrack you call life,

Just turn right,
Into my arms,
Turn right,
You won't be alone,
You might,
Fall off this track sometime,
Hope to see you on the finish line,

You're drving all your friends out,
You just be you cannot follow,
And soon you will be on your own,
Somehow I'm to blame,
For this never-ending racetrack you call life,

Just turn right (turn right),
Into my arms,
Turn right (turn right),
You won't be alone,
You might (you might),
Fall off this track sometime,
Hope to see you at the finish line,

I did all I could,
I gave everything,
But you had to go your way,
And that road was not for me,

So turn right,
Into my arms,
Turn right,
You won't be alone,
You might (you might) fall off this track sometime,
Hope to see you at the finish line
