Playing for You

Joe Hertz

Emptiness weighing me down
Let me take a break to figure me out
No point finishing now
Playing the wrong gameI can't take word from no one
I can't be who you want
Is it, worth it?
Having [?] with joy
Is it, worth it?
Being only what you want
And if you wanna change me
Watch me, cause I do what I do
And if you tryna play
Ain't nobody playing for you
And if you wanna change me
Ain't nobody changing for you
Say no more, [?]
You think it's all about youWhose world is it anyway
[?] to the most, so we're all the same
Smile on my face when dreams trump reality
Fuck what they're telling meI can't take word from no one
I can't be who you want
And if you wanna change me
Watch me, cause I do what I do
And if you tryna play
Ain't nobody playing for you
And if you wanna change me
Ain't nobody changing for you
Say no more, [?]
You think it's all about youAnd if you wanna change me
Watch me, cause I do what I do
And if you tryna play
Ain't nobody playing for you
And if you wanna change me
Ain't nobody changing for you
Say no more, [?]
You think it's all about you
