My Girl

Hoodoo Gurus

Once a girl took my love until I couldn't give anymore
Then I tried to pretend no to see what I couldn't ignore
My girl don't love me at all anymoreI took her to the dance and then I didn't see her all night
Then a friend said he saw her with some other boy just outside
When I went out she was aloneShe said, "I would like to go home"
I asked her, "Who were you with?"
She said, "No one"I could tell that she lied
(And a voice said inside)
My girl don't love me at all anymore
Not at all
