Baby Tonight

A.J. Croce

I wanna see the pages turn
Want to let the bridges burn
I don't want more than what I earn
I'm only in from out of town
I'm only up from undergroundI always try to play it cool
End up feeling like a foolMaybe you're right
(Maybe you're right)
Maybe I'm wrong, oh, just maybeBut, baby tonight
(Baby tonight)
Maybe so longStarting over once again
I only quit before the end
Need to break before I bend
I'm always looking inside out
I never question what I doubtI always judge before the trial
I'm in a rush to wait a whileMaybe you're right
(Maybe you're right)
Maybe I'm wrong, oh, just maybeBut, baby tonight
(Baby tonight)
Maybe so longI would never say forever
I can't wait that long
But whenever we're together
Everything goes wrong, a little wrongI always judge before the trial
In a rush to wait a whileMaybe you're right
(Maybe you're right)
Maybe I'm wrong, I, just maybeBaby tonight
(Baby tonight)
Maybe so long, oh babyBaby tonight
(Baby tonight)
Maybe so long
