

Throw Down The Sword (10-05-07)

Wishbone Ash

[Chorus:]

Throw down the sword
The fight is done and over
Neither lost, neither won
To cast away the fury of the battle
And turn my weary eyes for home There were times when I stood at death's own door
Only hoping for an answer [Chorus] There were times when I stood at death's own door
Only searching for an answer
