Goodnight Rose

Ryan Adams

Goodnight Rose, we're going to win
Put your troubles behind you
And go on to bed
Let go off the worry
There's so much nobody understands
Don't live your life in such a hurry
Life goes by us oh so fast
And the sun will come up again
And I will be here
If you get scared just hold my hand
Tomorrow is yours and who knows
Maybe we'll win the whole shabang
Goodnight Rose, goodnight, goodnight Rose
Good morning, sunshine, a new day begins
And the hustle and bustle of the traffic greets you kindly
I can tell because you're smiling
Come on, give 'em everything
That the winning demands
Just one more ribbon Rose
Before the mantle place caves in
And the sun will come up again
And I will be here, Rose
If you get scared just hold my hand
Get out of that dress
Go on to bed, the bar is closed
Goodnight Rose, goodnight, goodnight Rose
Goodnight Rose, goodnight, goodnight Rose
Goodnight Rose, goodnight, goodnight Rose
Goodnight Rose, goodnight, goodnight Rose
