Rubber Mallet

Alien Ant Farm

Cable cars run, through my mind
I think I'm north on Valentine
Maybe we drink to old friends
You should go and she's on my mind again
I lost my only enemy
So I reminisce thoughts
Tried be true
Takes me back
When I had to choose
And I don't ever lose
Someone's making me love, and I don't think it's you
Sleep, and I don't ever dream
Someone's got me in line and I don't ever dream
Indecision breaks my vision
And I don't give a damn
Indecision breaks my vision
And I don't give a damn
Reminisce thoughts, tried be true
Then played you out, was not good
Reminisce thoughts, tried be true
Then I played you out like a rubix cube
And I don't ever lose
Someone's making me love and I don't think it's you
Free from all disease now I'm clean
You just punch your hole and it won't seem to bleed
Only, only two of us
Only the two of us
Only, only two of us
Only the two of us
Only, only two of us
Only the two of us
When I had to choose and I don't ever lose
Someone's making me love and I don't think it's you
Free from all disease now I'm clean
You just punch your hole and it won't seem to bleed
Indecision breaks my vision
And I don't give a damn
So I reminisce thoughts, tried be true
Indecision breaks my vision

And I don't give a damn
So I reminisce thoughts, tried be true
