You Got Served

Given the Day

his eyes scan the dark forest im running for it
looking for an exit
my heart beats faster
and my lungs burn
with his finger on the trigger one squeeze away from dying

oh
what a surprise
tonight they dine on beer and wine their greatest hunt is my decline
my head above his mantel
and my body served with bread
they toast tonight
they toast to life

my death is on your conscience
and its eating at your mind
we toast tonight
cheers!
to your demise

knee deep inside the hunters mind mud under these fingernails he'll see my breath if i exhale

this clouded mind wont get me far with these legs that tug like weights to rest i need a safe place

what a surprise
and my body served with bread

my death is on your conscience
and its eating at your mind
we toast tonight
BREAK IT DOWN!!

(solo)

my head above his mantel

we toast to life
