Katie Herzig

Everyone needs someone to touch them
Everyone needs someone to hold
So whys it so damn hard to love when were aloneIve lived a lifetime telling stories
About the way we live and die
When love was born it was a mystery
Im yet to findAnd when I wake up in the morning
There is a twinkle in my eye
That maybe someday you will meet me
In the lightIll let you whisper
Ill let you hold me
Do what you came to
You are the only
I will not cry out
I will not fight you
Ill let you have me
All that you want to
Ill give you sunsets
Ill give you kisses
Ill give you songs that
That no one else hears
Its not enough love
Until you know me
Until you touch me
Until you hold me
