No Angel

Livy High

Emptiness has a face, take a look in my eyes
The windows to my soul are tinted
Traded substance for space so you can't see inside
My deepest thoughts are completely hiddenSplit apart at the seams, I'm broken too; unable, unable
If you cut me, I'll bleed, I'm just like you; no angel, no angelSend me up into flames with the strike of a match
Burn this halo and wings of paper
Was it safer to think I hurt like you do...feel the pain that you do? No angelSplit apart at the seams, I'm broken too; unable, unable
If you cut me, I'll bleed, I'm just like you; no angel, no angelAll these efforts in vain to crack this shell
What's inside? Even I don't know myself
Well enough to define but enough to lie
These walls are weak; don't follow meSplit apart at the seams, I'm broken too; unable, unable
If you cut me, I'll bleed, I'm just like you; no angel, no angel
