Bad Omen

Kriotek

Down fell the stars as they splashed into the sea
Mi nominee baphomet come dance with me
Sacrifice the virgins, spiritual rites
Their master's time has come the moon is full tonightDrinking, dancing, they worship, and toast
The Devil, who's watching with demon's remote
Fire, rising, racing in your blood
Possessed, naive, his service is done[Incomprehensible]
Bloody blasphemySinister's the word as the demon's take their fill
An orgy's taking place human blood will spill
An act of worship as they conceive the ghouls
Satan has their souls they sing pagan tunesThe ceremony is sure to be cursed
They wait for his blessings, but down comes the worst
Their bodies, soulless a corpse from the grave
Their minds are helpless and no one can saveNo one can save, no one can save
No one can save, no one can no
No one can save, no one can no
