Don't Fight It

Shanice

Yeah, don't matter, just don't fight it
Don't matter, just don't fight it
Yeah, don't matter, just don't fight it
Don't matter, just don't fight it, come on
I've been in need of some affection
How did I end up in your direction?
You're still friends with my ex-boyfriend
I don't know if I was wrong to pretend
That I never thought of you and me as getting it on Just so happens that I'm still all alone
Know that I've turned you down before
But I won't turn you down no more, baby
If you check me out, you can let me know
I'm not gonna fight it if my heart says so
If you wanna put it down, baby you should know
I'm not gonna fight it no more
If you wanna check me out, you can let me know
I'm not gonna fight it if my heart says so
If you wanna put it down, baby you should know
I'm not gonna fight it no more
I've been thinking 'bout your attention
Ever since the day you began to mention
That you wanted me oh, so very long
Never really knew you were feeling that strong
It could be confusion with you and your boy
Far as I'm concerned I ain't there no more
My love it's been enough time
When I can't get you off my mind, my mind
If you check me out, you can let me know
I'm not gonna fight it if my heart says so
If you wanna put it down, baby you should know
I'm not gonna fight it no more
If you wanna check me out, you can let me know

I'm not gonna fight it if my heart says so
If you wanna put it down, baby you should know
I'm not gonna fight it no more
I never thought it would ever be real
Can't stop thinking 'bout the way I feel boy

Never thought of it as right before
But I can't let him keep me unhappy no more
Didn't think it would happen to me
Making a decision over history
Is it wrong to be into you? What am I supposed to do
And he's not thinking 'bout me, baby
Don' fight it
Yeah, don't matter just don't fight it
Don't matter just don't fight it
Yeah, don't matter just don't fight it
Don't matter just don't fight it
Yeah, don't matter just don't fight it
Don't matter just don't fight it
Yeah, don't matter just don't fight it
Don't matter just don't fight it
If you check me out, you can let me know
I'm not gonna fight it if my heart says so
If you wanna put it down, baby you should know
I'm not gonna fight it no more
If you wanna check me out, you can let me know
I'm not gonna fight it if my heart says so
If you wanna put it down, baby you should know
I'm not gonna fight it no more
If you check me out, you can let me know
I'm not gonna fight it if my heart says so
If you wanna put it down, baby you should know
I'm not gonna fight it no more
