John Lennon

Nobody Told Me

(La la la) (La la la) (La la la) Without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Without you I'd be all alone (La la la)
Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
I keep hearin'
That the end is nearin'
Every other week there's another villian
John Lennon tried to help stop the killin'
The sorry thing is that nobody listened
The city and country they divided
They pointin' their fingers
Their callin' each other liar

And it's ashame
Traded on Jesus' name
And since the ages of Abel and Cain
Pleasure and pain
Heroin and cocaine
The father's insane
The son is kinda strange
The self-inflicted shotgun blasts in his viens.
These croked politicians
They ordering the killin' of
Of innocent civilians
They build another prison
For the children to fill them
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone

(La la la) Say without you I'd be all alone
(La la la)
