Chairman Of The Board

Motor Ace

Don't ask
They've been keeping secrets
We've been sleeping fast
You don't show the glimmer in your eye
Unless you've got someone to blow
Working overtime
By your own design
You cheat you steal you climb
Hey, you won at the see-saw
Got the attention
Now you're chairman of the board
Hey, but you're losing friends
'Cause you lost their patience
Nobody wants to know
Don't smile
They've been keeping tabs
Your dance moves are on file
So right, or wrong?
You're self-made and you're proud
You keep the repetition strong
Working overtime
By your own design
You cheat you steal you climb
Hey, you won at the see-saw
Got the attention
Now you're chairman of the board
Hey, but you're losing friends
'Cause you lost their patience
Nobody wants to know
Hey, you won at the see-saw
Got the attention
Now you're chairman of the board
Hey, but you're losing friends
You're out of time, out of time
Yeah, yeah
