Secret Mission

Big Head Todd And The Monsters

I once knew a woman, she put a curse on me
That eventually came true
She was a head on wreck on a mystic ride
You know the kind, amongst the visions and the ruins
And she was my unsuspecting secret mission
Leftover passion and desire, they only deepen the wound
But you must admit that the pain is sweet
Makes you howl at the moon
Yes you are my unsuspecting secret mission
You know she was my unsuspecting secret mission
Every eleven days or so, I get a message from you
Invisible ink on invisible paper but I can smell the perfume
You know you aren't my unsuspecting secret mission
I guess I ain't your unsuspecting secret mission
