Oh Well

Elvis Costello

The ink is running, the words are taught
I'm sitting helpless with my paper and charts
I had to follow my passion, oh wellI don't get paid that much for all I deserve
To waste a sentence or shatter my nerves
I had to follow my passion, oh wellSometimes I long to run outside
I'd give it all up but it's my pride
Oh well, oh wellI had a dream once or so I thought I'd be a pilot or an astronaut
I had a dream like that until I found

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/