Hide And Seek

Cold Driven

I chase your trail your chasing me
Trapped in a cycle with no end
You always know how to find me
Your conscience never seems to bend
You build me up to tear me down
You always know how to blame me
I can't believe I'm living a lie
I never knew I could untie
The knot we were making

I'm playing keep away from you
This game of hide and seek is through
I'll point the fingers back at you
Chalked up excuses just won't do anymore

Midnight conversations led on by confrontations
I'm feeling the regret
I chase your trail your chasing me
Trapped in a cycle with a trend
You always knew how to catch me
I can't believe I'm living a lie
I never knew I could untie
The knot we were making

I'm playing keep away from you
This game of hide and seek is through
I'll point the fingers back at you
Chalked up excuses just won't do anymore
No more
No more

I am lonely but there is no missing you
It seems like I'm trapped into silence
I am lonely but there is no missing you
It feels like I'm trapped into silence

I'm playing keep away from (away from) you

I'm playing keep away from you (keep away from you)
This game of hide and seek is through

I'll point the fingers back at you
Chalked up excuses just won't do
Just won't do
Just won't do
