All Day Afternoon

Judybats

Love receive this Romeo
Novice see, novice do
Novice shake and need someone
And hope some sweet surviveRadiance reveal itself
Have someone say him beautiful
Beautiful beyond the eye
Beyond this flesh non-truthAll day afternoon I love ya's
All day afternoon let sun shine down
All day afternoon taking things as the come
And then so gently watching them goGently traipsing on the wire
Falling soon, falling soon
Falling preclude being one
With every non new thing
Lifting up and letting blowSwaling down, swirling go
Swirling into open arms
Embrace him young sung youthAll day afternoon I love ya's
All day afternoon let sun shine down
All day afternoon taking things as the come
And then so gently watching them goWaiting for the coronation of gods
Paper thin the poetry come rapture my heart
Gear me in the griding moon and turn me to dust
Let me levitate and learn the loins of love's lustLove receive this Romeo
Novice see, novice go
Novice shake and need someone
To rip him through this rideRadiance reveal itself
Have someone say him beautiful
Beautiful beyond the lie that
Flesh will tell the truthAll day afternoon I love ya's
All day afternoon let sun shine down
All day afternoon taking things as the come
And then so gently watching them go
