Victory!

Void Of Silence

the sun never sets where our flag flies high victory is simple as it shines up in the skywe'll hang 'em high as we hail new glory so raise the flag once more and remind us what we're fighting for as our blood and loyalty reignreign forever more reign forever morevictory! for the ashes that we left behind victory! for the sake of those who fought and died victory! for our freedom 'til the end of time victory! you'll soon hear our battle cry karnixall hail new glory all hail new glorykrieg! krieg!
krieg!we'll always have our hearts and that they can't take we'll always have our heads to know what's at stake we'll always have our pride and not know disgrace we'll stand against the world and never hid our face
