Innocent

Small Mercies

It's amazing I can even close my eyes
To hide away from the fear
Although I try I'm losing my whole life
My conscious now is clearNow I can't explain
I'm not to blame
We are all innocent
Nothing to say
The more we betray
We are all innocentI long to find the words to justify
The reason now for what we do
You're so damn blind, I'm human, I'm mankind
Perfectly flawed, I'm just like youNow I can't explain
I'm not to blame
We are all innocent
Nothing to say
The more we betray
We are all innocentI gotta keep on running
I can feel it coming
You hold me down
As waves tower over my headWords sound like thunder
They pull me under
But we can be freeIt's amazing I can even close my eyes
To hide away from the fearNow I can't explain
I'm not to blame
We are all innocent
Nothing to say
The more we betray
We are all innocentNow I can't explain
I'm not to blame
We are all innocent
Nothing to say
The more we betray
We are all innocentInnocent now
Innocent now
