The Odyssey

Adestria

The shadows will lead us back the silhouettes point to the west.!I will not be kept from the life that I was meant to lead.Rah!It's hard to trust an aching body sealed with trust
but we've come to far to fall todayThe end will be delayed We'll make it home
if we have to crawl on our hands and knees
our minds may grow tired but these feets know the way!We've wandered far too long we've seen the gates of hell.There are those that would see is us fail.
Place us in our coffin
Strike the final nail
But who's to say that we wouldn't do the sameWE CAN'T BE STOPPED YOU'LL FALL APART
WE'LL JUST MOVE ON.It's hard to trust an aching body
sealed with trust
to fall today
The end will be delayedWe'll make it home
but these feets know the way!You speak with silver but you leave an ugly stain on all you touch on everything you say.WE WILL BE LEGEND.
