In Tiburon

Van Morrison

Across the Bay the fog has lifted
Down here... In Tiburon
That's what she said
When she was sitting looking
Out at the Golden Gate ... In the morning dawn
Across the Bay... In San Francisco
"The City Lights" in Ferlinghetti's day
North Beach, alleyways and cafes
Kerouac and Ginsberg ...Gregory Corso and Neal Cassady... all held sway
As Geraldi would playCast your feet to the wind and the distance
Lenny Bruce got busted at "The Hungry I"
"No Name Bar" down in Sausalito
Across the street where Chet Baker used to play
My heart was beating on the hillside
_____ In Tiburon
I need to take me back ... back down to Frisco
Now we need each other... Need each other to lean on---Interlude---
As Geraldi would play
Cast your feet to/feet to the wind and we listened
In the evening across the way
Chet Baker would play down at "The Trident"
With his horn, he blew everybody away
"The Cliff House" down in the Seal Rock Hotel
Fog horns blowing all night long 'til dawn
Geary Street _____
Left their homeland a long while ago
Some have stayed, but others not for so long
My heart was beating on the hillside
_____ In TiburonTake you back down to San Francisco
Now we need each other more than ever to lean on
Now we need each other more than ever more than ever to lean on Lean on me ... Lean on
Now we need each other more... than ever... to lean on
Back to City Lights...City Lights
North Beach and Broadway
We need each other...Need each other to lean on
Back to City Lights and North Beach... North Beach and Broadway
We need each other Need each other to lean on
