Wedding Day

Roy Orbison

Wonder how long it will take
For this heart of mine to break
As I watch you walk away
This was to be our wedding dayI won't hear the choir sing
While I hold your golden ring
Might as well throw it away
With my dreams of wedding dayTo hold you in my arms again
I watched my whole world fade away
On this our wedding dayWho was right and who was wrong
Makes no difference when youre all alone
As I watch you walk away
Goodbye darling, goodbye wedding day
