Woman Trouble

Ten Years After

Woman trouble always in my life
Got a babe, but she'll never be my wife
'Cause I know baby, yes I know
When she got you, man you're never letting goYou see her in the street with the sparkling eyes
Don't forget that she knows how to cry
'Cause you know, yeah yeah, yes, I know
When she got you, man you're never letting goShe says, baby, that we'll never fight
I know I'm gonna treat you right
You won't be lonely, this I know
There's a time when women have got to goWoman trouble always on my mind
My kind of woman I'll never find
'Cause I know baby, yes I know
When she got you, man you'll never let her go
Yeah
