How Could You Say

Ry Cuming

All these seasons passing me by but i know it's not my time
Taking chances with my love, well i know it's not my style
How could you say this is easy, when this is playing with my heart?
How could you say this is easy, for me?
Love love love (all right)
Love love loveDays go by quickly now but the nights take so long
Through it all you were the one but i know it's not my time
How could you say this is easy, when this is playing with my heart?
How could you say this is easy, when this is tearing me apart?
How could you say tears all over my face
How could you say now i'm walking away
How could you say
You got to feel the moment
You got to let it go now
You got to be emotional
Cos we can't let this thing goI know i've lost the feeling
I know that i'll never let you go
On my lips you left me with love but i know it's not my time
How could you say this is easy, when this is playing with my heart?
How could you say this is easy, when this is tearing me apart?
How could you say tears all over my face
How could you say now i'm walking away
How could you say
LoveHow could you say
How could you sayOn my lips you left me with love but i know it's not my time
