A Variation On Two

State Shirt

these are my tides
we fall in line
so anxiously hope the blood will clottwo times i waited to find a way
two times i woke up
too damn afraidinnocence saves us from sober selfishness work our way to the beacon of light overcome with endorphin rush gloryonly black can stop the song circle of life, line of death. friendly foe if you're the kind to knowtwo times i waited
to find a way
glory
