The Days

anders

Yeah; Roll another one, blow another one
Mix another one, pour another oneThere's been a lot on thats on my mind lately
You know i hate when you assume baby
You think you know but you never do baby
You act like i dont notice you've been moving shady
I know these bitches talk but i never let it phase me
Don't act like youre the only one thats going crazy
Dont assume that its been easy for me
I know i got options but its not what i need
Ive been too reckless, i dont want you to regret this, that was not my intention and you know itCause ever since we fell off it, I've been lonely
I apologize for putting you through these emotions
I ain't shit without you girl and you know it
Hold up baby let me show it cause i dont want all this to go to waste
I know that ive been all over the place, gotta pull myself together
You shouldn't have to wait but be patient for me baby yeah, yeah
Usually I like to keep things to myself
Mhmm mhmm
But its obvious, It was more than just politics
The days we use to take the long way home, so i could sing all your favorite songs
Tell me do you remember the days, ohhhh cause i remember everything, i remember everything and These things you cannot deny
All of the days have gone by Now I'm on tips, I fucked up for real but that was not my intention you know
Cause ever since we fell off it, I've been lonely
I apologize for putting you through these emotions
I ain't shit without you girl and you know it
Hold up baby let me show it cause i dont want all this to go to waste
I know that ive been all over the place, gotta pull myself together
You shouldn't have to wait but be patient for me baby yeah, yeah
