Break Up (Cascada Remix)

Kim Sozzi

you look kinda cute when your mad your eyes are pretty when you look sad nothings like a salty kiss tasting the tears; the tears on your lips we always forgive and forget its funny how we feel no regret cats and dogs black and white picking a fight were feeling alright

we should break up
cause baby i love when we kiss and make up
we should break up

come on baby let it all out its easy to be caught in a round about better to let off the steam than blowing a fuse if you know what i mean

we should break up

we should break up

i know were two of a kind i know we get through the bump and the grind and how i don't care if we build it up just to tear it down

we should break up

we should break up

we should break up
