Save Yourself (9.01 Version)

Sense Field

Turn out the light
Just say goodnight
To yourself
May I remind you
When You find you
Are all alone's when you
You've got to be strongThat's when they call you in the night
He's got your picture in his mind
He's got your number
On a paper at his disposal any timeIs it really true
Did you save yourself for someone
Who could love you for you
So many times we just give it away
To someone who, simeone who
You met in a bar
The back of a car
And for a moment
You felt important
But not in your heart
Cause my self esteem it's been low
Go ahaead and count it's been lower than low(er)
I know the feeling
Of it stealing
Life out from under meCause i want to learn
How you save yourself for someone who Could love you for you
So many times we just give it away
To someone who Couldn't even rememeber your nameCould you save yourself
For someone who
Loves you for you
And loves me for me
Or give it away
To someone who, someone who Could cherish your nameCause I want to learn
Did you save yourself for someone who
Loves you for you
And Loves me for me

To Give it away to someone who, someone who Will cherish your nameCherish Your Name
