Don't Come Around

Roman Holiday

I could paint this town with all I know
Uncover all your secrets that I hold
I hope it haunts you
When know one wants you

The little bit of hurt that made me bleed
Was nothing but a fistful of your greed
My shoulder's shakin
I was mistaken

Don't you come around here no more
No don't you come around here

I built a solid wall around my heart
So you can't come and peel my ribs apart
And steal my heartbeat
Don't steal my heartbeat

Now empty fields are calling out my name
Stealing my sleep and making me insane
My heart it scares me
My worry tears me down

Don't you come around here no more
No don't you come around here
