Marionette

Schelmish

I'm scared to break it down and start from nothing tried selling out cuz I wanna be somethingI'm on top of the world and I don't know it yetI changed my mind, changed my heart, changed my life for you you said it all before the fall, I'm fucking done with youMy hands are tied behind my back and I'm breaking outYour time is up, my time is now It's in the air can you feel it my life is finally in my handsBurn like a cigarette I'm not your marionetteI ran away to escape your nightmare you say you care but I know you don't fight fairAnother promise on the list that I knew you'd breakI changed my mind, changed my heart, changed my life for me I said it all, put up a wall I'm doing this for meI cut the strings above my head I bet you're freaking outI never want to live a life of lies again
believing what I'm feeling, I hear it loud and clear
