Sugar Sweet

Alyssa Bernal

Youre sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Theres a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to meEvery time our eyes meet
I know youre sugar sweetWe were sitting at our favorite table
With Alyssa, Aaron, Jojo
Waiting for our number, on the Westside of San Antonio
Hadnt told you, but I really tried to
I came close but something came up
But this time is the only time left to sayYoure sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Theres a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to meJust hold on
I wont be long
And if Im weak
Will you be strong?Youre sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Theres a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to meEvery time our eyes meet
Youre sugar sweet
