Sudden Death

Death Mask

It's always wrong, never right
It's always such a useless fight
Living life with nothing to gain
Tired of feeling burning painCould hang it high, 'til I die
Could slit my throat, who would know?
Could blow my head, 'til I'm dead
Could hold my breath, for sudden deathI'm waiting for a sign
That it's time for me to die
Now it's time for me to step
Into nothingness
