Who Am I Now

BlackHawk

If someone asked me who I was
I'd respond in terms of us
It's hard to recall the dayWhen I didn't think that way
I was one half of you and me
That was my identityWho am I know, now that you're gone
Gotta find out I gotta be strong
When I had you I had no doubt
I was the one you loved
Who am I nowEvery room that I walk through
I see a world that's based on tows
Every friend we ever knewI wonder now whose friend is whose Like some ghost come through that door
Someone we all knew beforeWho am I know, now that you're gone
Gotta find out I gotta be strong
When I had you I had no doubt
I was the one you loved
Who am I nowI will surviveBut I don't know how, now that you're gone
Gotta find out I gotta be strong
When I had you I had no doubt
I was the one you loved
Who am I nowNow that you're gone
Gotta find out I gotta be strong
When I had you I had no doubt
I was the one you loved
Who am I now
