Shipwrecked

Stellar Road

i might wreck this whole thing i might still be drunk in the morning because i canâ€™t find that real thing and i canâ€™t seem to turn you on, no i can let your heart sting and i canâ€™t let you get the best of me souls and mind keep mending until we, we let it all go *but will it go? shipwrecked on a beach in chicago?

try to find a place all alone let my mind go all things clear now gonna take it real slow iâ€•m remembering, iâ€•m remembering but this ship keeps sailing i cannot fake a smile in passing and i gotta say, i kind of like this new thing and i think i really turn her on

iâ€™m not afraid of failing i just donâ€™t want to lead you on, no but youâ€™re so amazing and your pictures so worth saving souls and bodies craving why canâ€™t i just turn you on
